Description of calculation of the contract value at death of the annuitant

Prior to the date of the first annuity payment:

The contract value at death is the return of premium with interest at 0% per annum.

On or after the date of the first annuity payment:

The contract value at death is the commuted value of the value of the remaining guaranteed annuity payments, calculated in accordance with Company rates then in effect. For illustration purposes, the commuted values were calculated at each policy anniversary with interest rates in effect at the time of the illustration. The value may differ at the time of death.

Advantages of a life annuity for you

Want to be able to count on regular, guaranteed income during your retirement? With a life annuity, you'll get payments as set intervals for your entire lifetime.

With a life annuity you get:
